FROM THE BRIDGE

by Bob Axel, Commodore

GOOD EVENING MR. AND MRS. AMERICA AND ALL THE SHIPS AT SEA, this is your faithful reporter Walter Windshield reporting for October, 2007 :

Dateline SeaGate Yacht Club progressive dinner, August 18 ; The members gathered at a lovely park on the SeaGate grounds for a afternoon party which included a delightful spread of poached salmon, grilled vegetables and refreshments for an hour with a view of the channel. They adjourned to the club house for an elegant dinner and then went by electric boat to the beautiful home of Martha Baumel for banana foster dessert with all the trimmings. It was another memorable event put on by your members. Everyone had a great time.

Dateline Newport Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club Dock – up September 14; Another large flotilla departed Huntington Harbour for safe harbor of Newport Beach, led by Commodore Bob Axel and Linda on the Linda Si, for another fun filled weekend at BCYC. The boats were secured at the BCYC docks, and the fun began. Friday activities were layback, ending with a wonderful Bar-b que in the evening under the stars. Saturday opened with either a trip to Newport in the water boat show, a cruise around the bay, a walk to Balboa Island, or a swim in the yacht club pool. At 1600 Hrs an on the dock party began, with wonderful food and a full compliment of refreshments. Jerry and Linda Cassidy did their usual bang-up job. The weather was perfect, and after a couple of hours, everyone went in the club for a mouth watering dinner. Sunday opened with a brunch in the club and after everyone was too full to walk, they departed for home. John and Margaret Humphreys hosted the event and it was perfect. Linda Axel did her expert supporting roll making sure the event went smoothly. The Commodore thanks them for the job well done.

Dateline SeaGate club hour's General meeting. October 3 is the date for the club General Meeting. Members are invited to attend at 1800 Hrs for dinner and a meeting at 1900 Hrs. The election of officers for next year will be at stake, as well as other general business of the club. Everyone is encouraged to attend to support the important decisions of the club. This reporter hopes to see each of you there.

Dateline SeaGate clubhouse, October 27 Halloween Party. Jeanie and Don Barnett, Terry and Jack Hayden are hosting this bash. Dress as your favorite ghost or goblins , get as scary as possible and join us on this fun event.

It was discovered that the Club is in need of a Rear Commodore. Each member is asked to consider putting their name in the ring to assist the Club. Contact Vice Commodore Cleve Sproule or Commodore Bob Axel.

This is Walter Windshield signing off . Good night.....

Newport Beach Dock-up Sept. 7th thru 9th 2007

By John & Margaret Humphreys Event Hosts

We had six boats tied up at the Bahia Corinthian Yacht Club docks by Friday evening. Most of us got there shortly after noon and were able to enjoy a picture perfect afternoon relaxing with our fellow club members or enjoying the welcome BCYC pool. Our host club very graciously allowed us to use their super barbecue in the evening. This was a bring your own entrée to barbecue with appetizers to share, and we had our own area with tables and chairs to set everything up. As the meat sizzled on the barbecue and the wine and beer began to flow we really mellowed out for a perfect start to our weekend.

The following morning we all did our own thing, some folks ventured down to the Lido Boat show which was on this weekend, toured the magnificent harbour in their whaler or dinghy, or after enjoying breakfast at BCYC just relaxed and socialized. In the afternoon we had our traditional club cocktail party with bring your own appetizers on the dock attended by 44 of our members, and our thanks go out to Jerry & Linda Cassidy who did a fabulous job setting this up. Then in the evening we enjoyed a fabulous steak and salmon dinner in our own beautifully decorated room at BCYC, and the steak was done to perfection! Unfortunately we couldn't nominate anyone for the dumb bell award as Jerry left the flag hanging over the bar at the SeaGate Club house, so he has the dubious honor of keeping it until the next water event.

On Sunday most of us had a great breakfast at BCYC before heading back home, although we didn't partake of the champagne brunch.

Everyone had a great time at this last cruising event of the year with good fellowship, great weather and our host yacht club who went out of their way to make our stay with them so enjoyable.

SGYC Members--

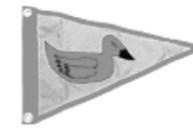

As a part of this year's holiday boat parade entry by your Yacht club we need a couple of lighted green palm trees. If any of you have purchased these for decorations and are now storing them, we would appreciate the use of them for the Holiday Boat Parade. We can return the decorations after the parade if needed. Please contact Bob McCormick at 714-840-0136 or Email at jobobmc@verizon.net. He will arrange for pick up at a time convenient for you.

FROM THE REAR

by Ray Nagele, Rear Commodore

The SeaGate Yacht Club boating event participants continued to have a wonderful time over the last couple of months. The Progressive Dinner event was very successful. A few Duffy's cruised in the Harbour between courses. The Newport Harbor Dock Up event was a fun event. Both landlubbers and yachtsmen had a great time. John and Margaret Humphreys did a great job organizing the event, even providing everyone with a souvenir CD!! Cruzin' Tuesday has been very well attended this summer, forcing the event to go into September. The SeaGate Yacht Club boat entry for the Philharmonic Boat Parade had its first design meeting in August, way ahead of schedule! In fact, as Jan Nagele was doing her morning run the other day, Bob McCormick proudly showed her the cut-out surf boards...way to go Bob!! This year's theme is "Surf City Sounds"; we've come up with some really great ideas already, and we have time to even make it better since we've started so early. Robin and Jean Clark are once again kindly allowing the club to use their boat Fintastic for the parade. We will be having decorating parties in the next few months, details to follow. Let's have a repeat win for the best Yacht Club Award!
