FRANCIS OKINO, COMMODORE

As you are all aware, the Coronavirus Orders forced us to postpone our Opening Day. The new date has been tentatively set for June 27, 2020. We do not know at this point what other restrictions will be in place when the present Stay at Home Order is lifted. However, the Board will continue to meet via Zoom as indicated in the Burgee pictures. All the Events from June up to the end of the year are still on schedule, and we encourage all Event Hosts to continue with their normal plans and preparation. As we continue with the Stay at Home Order, we encourage all the members to check on some of our more vulnerable members and to offer help where necessary. If you are doing something interesting during the Stay at Home period, please send a picture to okinos@att.net so that Aurelia can put it on the Website for all of us to share and enjoy. Seagate Yacht Club is still desperately looking for a Rear Commodore and a Webmaster. To provide continuous leadership and direction for this our beloved club, we really need your help. Please volunteer!

DONNA WELLS, VICE COMMODORE

When we celebrated 2020 as a new decade—who knew what was lurking behind the dark curtain? My goodness gracious, this has been an interesting and unique year! I guess we should all be happy that the ice has NOT melted in the harbor and we must continue to wait for SGYC to declare opening day! We are hoping to celebrate towards the end of June 2020; so, stay tuned for the details. The board is busy planning new and exciting events for the year once we can all venture out of our homes. Until then, we all miss you, your laughs, sharing stories and most importantly, a great adult beverage. Stay Happy! Stay Healthy! Stay Safe! I hope to see you soon!!

DR. MARK MONROE, M.D., FLEET

How to Recognize Medical Emergencies

According to the American College of Emergency Physicians, these are the signs of medical emergencies:

1. Bleeding that won't stop.
2. Difficulty breathing.
3. Altered mental status such as confusion, difficulty arousing, or loss of consciousness.
4. Chest pain especially if with shortness of breath.
5. Choking or near-drowning.
6. Coughing up or vomiting blood which may resemble coffee grounds.
7. Head or spine trauma.
8. Feeling of committing suicide or murder.
9. Severe or persistent vomiting which may lead to severe dehydration.
10. Sudden injury such as car accident, falls, burns, smoke inhalation.
11. Sudden severe pain anywhere in the body.

More Cont'd.
