KELLY TIDWELL, COMMODORE

A hoy SeaGate Yacht Club Members:

We finished 2016 and overnight moved right into 2017.

I am here to tell you that we did it with REAL FANFARE! With the creative Fran Cyrus directing, we transformed the SeaGate Clubhouse into a 1940s style Hollywood Nightclub. The transition started in front of the clubhouse where our friend, Elliott Anderson, parked his award winning 1940 Lincoln Continental Cabriolet convertible for us to take pictures upon our arrival. The much needed rain added to the drama and excitement. Inside, the Nightclub was aglow with special lighting which gave it a romantic mood just right for dancing to the tunes from the Big Band and Sinatra era. The Black and Gold theme was carried throughout the "club" adding to the rich Old Hollywood Glamour theme. Suzanne's Catering of Huntington Beach crafted sumptuous appetizers of Pulled Pork or Chicken Sliders, Grilled Shrimp with Tamarind Chili Sauce and Bruschetta which were tray passed by her staff. In addition, there were several food stations including an elaborate display of Imported and Domestic Cheeses, Olives and Bread. Another station of Mashed Potatoes served in Martini glasses with every imaginable topping and carving of extremely tender Tri-Tip Beef with Mini Rolls and Gorgonzola Butter. Assorted Mini Desserts and Pies and Gourmet Coffee were served on an elegant buffet. Our Port Captain, Jim Hagin and his lovely wife, Judie, made sure the bar was well stocked with refreshments of every description and plenty of "bubbly" for us to toast the New Year at each of the four U.S. Time Zones.

The real show stopper of the evening was all of the members and guests in the Haute Couture of the Era. The Ladies dressed in their finery, furs, jewelry, evening gowns and the handsome Beau Brummells really made the event complete. It was a wonderful way to close 2016 and usher in the exciting events planned for SeaGate Yacht Club in 2017.

Wishing that your deepest dreams and desires for 2017 come true,
Kelly Tidwell, SGYC Commodore 2017

CINDY BROZ ALLEN, VICE COMMODORE

Happy New Year! I am honored to serve as your Vice Commodore this year. SGYC won the Best Yacht Club Trophy at this year's boat parade thanks to a wonderful group of volunteers, which included Bob McCormick, Jeff Specht, Marilyn Schwartz, Janet Littlejohn, Ralph Lind, Ray and Jan Nagele, Susan Lipman, John Humphreys, Josef Davydovits, Kelly Tidwell, Fran Cyrus, Sandy Atherton, Erlene Pace, Pat and Vaughn Jenkes and Gail LaCorazza. A very special thank you to Jr Staff Commodore Mark and Lina Monroe for letting SGYC use their sailboat ROMIDA. We are grateful for the members who volunteer for the benefit of the Club.

Speaking of volunteers, there are a few event host positions left. Please contact Commodore Kelly Tidwell if you are interested, it is a rewarding experience and helps our Club!

I am looking forward to a great year filled with memorable Sea Gate Yacht Club events.

ERLENE PACE, REAR COMMODORE

Happy New Year SGYC members! Wow, I can't believe how fast this year sailed by. Thanks to all of you who supported the "Ship's Store" throughout the year and my last Xmas sale, which was a success. As you may know, Marilyn Schwartz has now assumed that position, she will do an excellent job and already has some new merchandise. I am very honored to be your Rear Commodore and look forward to the events planned this year. If I haven't met you yet, please don't be shy, come up & say "Hi"!

Happy Birthday February/March
